EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF INTERNAL MEDICINE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Thursday, 30 August 2018, Wiesbaden, Germany

Minutes

General Assembly

1. Welcome (R. Palsson)

R. Palsson welcomed the members of EFIM General Assembly to Wiesbaden and expressed his gratitude to the German society for hosting the European congress in Wiesbaden and their enormous support throughout the organisation of ECIM 2018. Special acknowledgment was addressed to Prof. Petra-Maria Schumm-Draeger, ECIM 2018 Congress President, for her extra efforts in ensuring all the necessary support for the congress.

2. EFIM President report (R. Palsson)

R. Palsson gave a brief overview on the EFIM activities from the past year, concentrating on the objectives and the mission of EFIM in the future. R. Palsson mentioned the increased collaboration with the national societies in the EFIM Working Groups, the collaboration with the UEMS Section of Internal Medicine under the auspices of the European Board of Internal Medicine, particularly the harmonisation and implementation of the European curriculum. R. Palsson thanked the members of the EFIM Executive Committee for their hard work throughout the 2018, shaping up the future of the Federation. One of highlights of 2018 was the election of the European Journal of Internal Medicine Editor-in-Chief and the success of the journal. An innovative communication strategy was presented emphasizing the involvement of EFIM in social media and the new layout of the EFIM website. R. Palsson concentrated on the collaboration with the American College of Physicians and the future collaboration in updating the Charter of Professionalism as the basis of medicine's contract with society. There was a lot of attention given to physician burnout and the work-life balance as major initiatives for EFIM in the future.

3. Report of the Treasurer, approval of EFIM Annual Accounts 2017, and report on the accounts for 2018 and the EFIM budget for 2019 (V. Kokorin)

V. Kokorin presented the 2017 accounts, informing the General Assembly members that the year 2017 will end with a positive balance of €52,435.43, mainly due to the income from the Milan congress, EFIM membership and EJIM Royalties.

	Accounts approved	Final results
Expenses	€ 226,686.36	€ 207,556.13
Income	€ 230,800.00	€ 318,699.12
Provision 2017
ACP Meeting		10,000.00 €
Website design		10,000.00 €
Social liabilities		38,707.56 €
Result	€ 4,113.64	€ 52,435.43

The 2017 end-of-year results were approved unanimously by the EFIM General Assembly Members.

V. Kokorin presented the finances for 2018, projecting that the year will end up with a small surplus of 8,511.91.

The results will depend on the final balance of the ECIM 2018 in Wiesbaden. V. Kokorin informed the General Assembly members that the expenses for the ECIM 2018 congress were beyond the agreed budget and therefore a provision was foreseen to cover the unexpected expenses which might result in less surplus at the end of the year.

V. Kokorin thanked all the national societies for processing the membership dues on time which facilitates smooth operation of EFIM activities. Considering that the membership structure is functioning successfully with the current method, V. Kokorin informed the General Assembly members that the same structure will remain in place until 2020. During the General Assembly in 2019, a proposal for a new membership structure will be presented to the members.

V. Kokorin continued with submitting the budget proposal for 2019, projecting a small surplus of € 5,629.88 which will depend mainly on the outcome of the ECIM 2019 and other EFIM activities. V. Kokorin pointed out that EFIM has lined up many new projects in 2019. However, EFIM expects a very successful congress in Lisbon that should result in a positive balance of the accounts.

Budget Forecast 2019
Expenses	€ 255,820.12
Income	€ 261,450.00
Results	€ 5,629.88

The President of the Lebanese Society of Internal Medicine, Dr. Elie Moubarak, was invited to present the Lebanese society. Dr. Moubarak thanked EFIM and the Executive Committee for the opportunity to attend the General Assembly and ECIM 2018 in Wiesbaden. Dr. Moubarak presented the Lebanese Society of Internal Medicine and briefly described the activities of the organisation, including their congresses and the involvement and collaboration with other scientific societies, especially the French Society of Internal Medicine.

Members of the EFIM General Assembly approved the membership of the Lebanese Society of Internal Medicine as an Associate Member of EFIM with unanimous vote.

9. Candidates for ESIM Summer School 2020/2022: Spanish Society of Internal Medicine

Dr. Gemma Ortiz Llauradó presented the proposal from the Spanish Society of Internal Medicine to host the summer school in El Escorial, a town close to Madrid. The Spanish Society of Internal Medicine is following a long tradition and experience in organising internal medicine schools in Spain, including the very first EFIM summer school organised by Dr. Jaime Merino. Dr. Llauradó presented the town and the venue for the school. The Colegio Mayor of the Royal University Center of El Escorial María Cristina has been proposed as the meeting venue. The Colegio Mayor is modern and comfortable, featuring all the necessary facilities necessary for the organisation of the school. The registration fee will remain the same at 995€ per person including the accommodation, meals and the social activities. The programme will feature clinical presentations and practical issues in patient care, as well as several different topics with interactive presentations following a work scheme similar to the previous schools.

Members of the EFIM General Assembly approved the proposal by the Spanish Society of Internal Medicine to host ESIM Summer school 2020 - 2021 with unanimous vote.

10. European Journal of Internal Medicine progress report (P. Mannucci)

Prof. P. Mannucci, the outgoing EJIM Editor-in-Chief, gave brief presentation on the latest progress of the journal by acknowledging the team involved in the development and progress since 2008. P. Mannucci was pleased to present the progress of the journal during the past year, informing the General Assembly about the increase in the impact factor to 3.28. EJIM now ranks 27th out of the 154 journals in the category Medicine General & Internal. Both, the Publisher, Elsevier, and EFIM expressed their gratitude to P. Mannucci for his exceptional leadership and achievements as the EJIM Editor-in-Chief.
