

EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF

INTERNAL MEDICINE

is seeking an Editor-in-Chief

The European Federation of Internal Medicine (EFIM) is seeking candidates for the position of Editor in-Chief of the European Journal of Internal Medicine (EJIM). EJIM, the official publication of the EFIM, is a peer-reviewed journal committed to promoting the science and practice of internal medicine in Europe and worldwide.

Qualifications:

- Broad knowledge and experience in internal medicine
- Distinguished record of scholarly contributions
- Strong leadership qualities, administrative skills and experience relevant to editing a medical journal are also important
- Clinical research design and basic concepts of statistics and ethics of research
- Familiar with online peer review systems
- Excellent editing and writing skills are required

Responsibilities of the Editor-in-Chief of EJIM include:

- Continue to enhance the journal's quality and competitive position
- Develop new editorial initiatives and contribute to EFIM's mission of promoting internal medicine
- Managing the journal's activities within the limits of the annual budget and financial structure
- Supervises the manuscript submission and review process
- Responsible for the content, quality, and timeliness of each issue of EJIM
- Recommends to EFIM a team of outstanding associate and section editors to help administer the peer review process
- Promote excellence in the journal's content, and advance editorial initiatives

Information and Deadlines:

- Term will begin January 1, 2018 and continues for a six-year term
- An honorarium will be paid to the Editor-in-Chief in recognition of the time and effort allocated to this position
- To apply, please submit a letter of applications, curriculum vitae and a brief description of future vision for the journal and specific objectives the applicant wants to achieve
- Letter of application and accompanying materials should be sent to Aneta Trajkovska (aneta.trajkovska@efim.org)
- Candidates will be selected for in-person interviews with members of EFIM Publication Committee which will be carried out at the EFIM Headquarters in Brussels

Deadline for applications September 29, 2017

