

EFIM Early Career Group

Frauke Weidanz

Consultant in Acute Internal Medicine and Critical Care Edinburgh,
United Kingdom

Aims of the EFIM Early Career Group

Support professional development for 'Early Career' Internists

Facilitate networking across Europe and shape specialty identity

Develop future leaders and role models

Disseminate values and benefits of EFIM

Add creativity and new impulses to EFIM

Ensure EFIM activities and congresses are relevant to 'jobbing' internists

Matthias Raspe - Berlin

Ieva Ruza - Riga

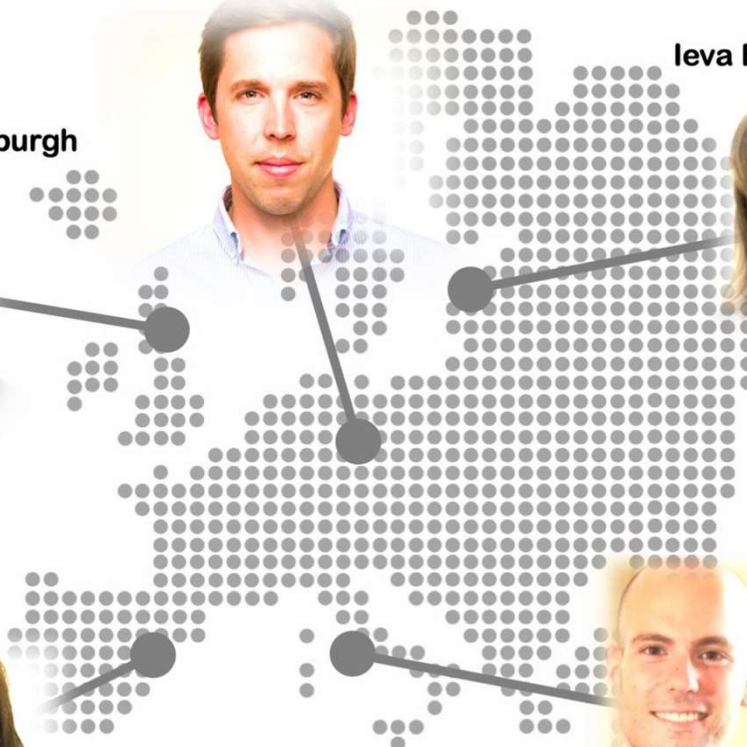

Frauke Weidanz - Edinburgh

Gemma Ortiz - Barcelona

Alberto Tosoni - Rome

Activities of the EFIM Early Career Group

Pre-congress courses and congress sessions

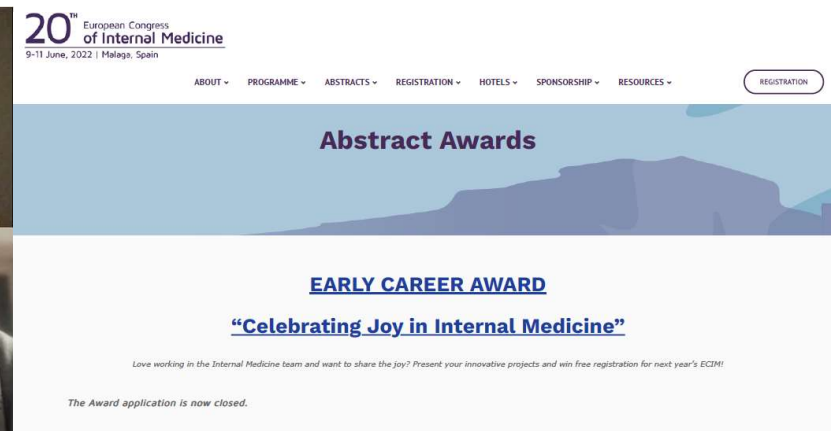

Early Career “Joy in Internal Medicine” award

Webinars

Early Career Zoom brunch

Social media

European Advanced Schools of Internal Medicine: 2 - 4 July & 25 - 27 November 2022

EASIM 2022

European Advanced School of Internal Medicine

2 – 4 July, Riga, Latvia

EFIM ECG

European Federation of Internal Medicine
Early Career Group

How can the EFIM Early Career Group support you as a European internist?

@InternistsEFIM

Go to www.menti.com

Enter code 6647 8074

