5 star reviews

- Used as educational material at Warwick Medical school
- Being referenced by trainees all over the UK

The cover art for the 'Home of Medicine Podcast' features a dark background with a white house icon containing a microphone. Below the icon, the text 'HOME OF MEDICINE' and 'PODCAST' is displayed in a bold, white, sans-serif font. Underneath, it says 'Available on' followed by three buttons for 'Listen on Apple Podcasts', 'Listen on Google Podcasts', and 'Listen on Spotify Podcasts'. At the bottom, the 'EFIM Academy' logo is shown, including the text 'European Federation of Internal Medicine' and a circular icon with a stethoscope. A QR code and the website 'www.efimacademy.org' are also present.

“Great podcast”

“I find this podcast absolutely fascinating”

“The team do an excellent job of demystifying thought processes and challenge each other and the listener”

“Incredible learning resource, one of the best around? Please keep the episodes coming”

“ Some real take home points that aren’t often discussed”

“Love the podcast”

“ I love listening to the podcasts, they are so valuable for my learning”

Future

- Need to reach out to people willing to record an episode in Europe to broaden the listener base across Europe
- As yet, in spite of repeated emails, little desire to be involved
- Continue to record episodes
- We have a huge potential, lets maximise this!!!
