M. Lember will serve the EFIM Executive Committee in the role of EFIM Secretary General for the next 2 years until the General Assembly in March 2027.

The mandate of the EFIM Secretary General will not be remunerated.

7. Elections President Elect - Voting and Approval:

EFIM President Elect

R. Gómez Huelgas informed the Members of the EFIM General Assembly that three candidates had applied for the position of EFIM President-Elect, as follows: Dr. Ieva Ruza from the Latvian Society of Internal Medicine, Dr Fredrik von Wowern from the Swedish Society of Internal Medicine, and Prof. Serhat Ünal from the Turkish Society of Internal Medicine. Manifestos of all the candidates were sent to the General Assembly members prior to the meeting.

Prof. Elder, representing the Federation of Royal Colleges of Physicians of the UK, raised a question regarding the eligibility of Prof. Ünal's candidacy, noting potential non-compliance with the new EFIM Bylaws regarding his retirement age. This concern was reiterated by Prof. Pálsson from Icelandic Society of Internal Medicine and few other members of EFIM National Societies.

In response, Dr Oğuz A. Uyaroğlu, on behalf of the Turkish Society of Internal Medicine, clarified that in Turkey the mandatory retirement age at universities is 70 years, thereby confirming that Prof. Ünal meets the eligibility criteria.

Following this clarification and despite the concerns raised, the General Assembly approved Prof. Ünal's application to present his candidacy for the position of EFIM President-Elect.

Candidates:

Dr. Ieva Ruza - Latvian society of Internal Medicine

Dr Ieva Ruža presented her candidacy for the position of EFIM President-Elect.

Dr. Ruza is an internist at the Riga East Clinical University Hospital and Riga Stradins University with more than 25 years of experience in clinical medicine as a dedicated internist and endocrinologist, being trained in Latvia, Germany, and the USA.

In her presentation, she outlined her vision for shaping the future of Internal Medicine in Europe, emphasising the importance of strengthening EFIM's pan-European identity and fostering a strong sense of belonging among member societies and internists.

Dr. Ruza highlighted key priorities, including boosting education and training, supporting research, promoting collaboration across Europe, and strengthening EFIM's organisational and administrative capacity.

Dr Ruža also expressed her vision of evolving EFIM from a Federation into a more proficient and dynamic European Society of Internal Medicine, better equipped to meet future professional and educational challenges.

Dr. Fredrik von Wowern - Swedish Society of Internal Medicine

Dr Fredrik von Wowern presented his candidacy for the position of EFIM President-Elect. In his presentation, he outlined his professional background in Internal Medicine, clinical leadership, research, and active involvement in EFIM activities and Working Groups in the past years.

Dr. von Wowern presented his vision and key priorities, which include strengthening the implementation of the Choosing Wisely initiative, increasing the impact and engagement of EFIM member countries, and developing a European Curriculum and Exam in Internal Medicine. Additional priorities included promoting research and the responsible use of Artificial Intelligence in Internal Medicine, supporting cross-national collaboration, advancing hospitalist medicine and high-dependency care, and fostering the next generation of internists.

Prof. Serhat Ünal - Turkish Society of Internal Medicine

Prof. Serhat Ünal presented his candidacy for the position of EFIM President-Elect. In his presentation, he highlighted his extensive experience in Internal Medicine, academic leadership, and long-standing involvement with EFIM as Executive Committee Officer and ECIM Chair, including his work within EFIM Working Groups and his role in EFIM educational activities and congresses.

He outlined a forward-looking vision addressing key challenges facing Internal Medicine in Europe, including digital transformation, climate change, healthcare professional burnout, and changing patient expectations. His priorities focused on promoting personalised care, advancing digital innovation and artificial intelligence, and several others.

Prof. Ünal also emphasised the importance of education and training, and international collaboration, calling for a unified and proactive EFIM to lead the future development of Internal Medicine in Europe.

Voting and approval President Elect:

Voting President Elect:

Members of the General Assembly voted according to the Article 12: Proceedings, quorums of EFIM Statutes. Members of the EFIM General Assembly elected Dr. Fredrik von Wowern from the Swedish of Internal Medicine with 42 votes against 17 for Dr. Ieva Ruža, and 9 for Prof. Serhat Ünal for the position of EFIM President-Elect for a duration of 2 years.
